Planned Giving: Sample Bequest Language

You can include the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board in your will in several ways:

1. The most common method is to include a bequest for:

- a percentage of your estate,
- a specific dollar amount, or
- the residue of your estate after providing for others

One beautiful way to think of all of the people you'd like to help is to think of them as one of your children, and distribute your estate among your children and loved ones or charities.

2. You may also name the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board as a contingent beneficiary in the event that other beneficiaries predecease you.
3. Another thoughtful arrangement is to establish a trust in your will that provides lifetime income for a loved one with the remainder eventually going to the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board.

For the purposes of including the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board in your will, our legal name is "Urban Homesteading Assistance (U-hab)". The Urban Homesteading Assistance Board is a 501(3)c nonprofit organization and our tax identification number is 13-2902798.

By including the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board in your will you are helping to promote the development and preservation of affordable housing for all people in need of decent housing in New York City.

A Double-Purpose Bequest

You can provide a relative or friend with income for life through a special gift to the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board. You can do this by establishing a charitable trust through your Will. Upon your death, the trust pays income to the person you designate. After that person's death, whatever remains in the trust passes to the Urban Homesteading Assistance Board.
