Join UHAB as we salute the hard work of affordable co-op residents, tenant associations, and low-income housing allies at our free reception, film screening, and panel discussion.

We are honored to be joined by representatives from Crown Heights Tenant Union, Tenants & Neighbors, CUNY (The City University of New York), and the HDFC Shareholders Forum.

This free event will bring together housing activists who work within their communities to spark change from the ground up.

Please note, RSVPs are required
Space is limited at this free event!
